DR. EBENEZER MACKAY DIES

Recently Retired as Superintendent of Trenton Schools

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 7.—Dr. Ebenezer Mackay, recently retired as superintendent of the public schools of the city, in which capacity he had served for years, died yesterday in St. Francis's Hospital as a result of complications. He had been in failing health for the last year and had been confined to his bed only during the last few weeks.

Doctor Mackay was born in Butler, Pa., August 14, 1857. On his graduation from the Witherspoon Institute and the preparatory school at Mercersburg, he graduated from the Mercersburg College, receiving the degree of A.B. He also received the degree of Ph.D. from Franklin and Marshall College. He taught school in Butler a time and was then appointed superintendent of the schools in his home town. Prior to being named the superintendent of schools here he held a similar position in Reading.

Doctor Mackay was ex-president of the Pennsylvania State Teachers' Association and president of the City Superintendents' Association of Pennsylvania. He was president of the State Teachers' Association of New Jersey in 1909, and of the New Jersey Council of Education in 1912 and 1913.

George R. Bower, president of the Henry Bower Manufacturing Co., died yesterday afternoon at his home in Torresdale.

Mr. Bowers was a member of the Union League, the Philadelphia Club, Markham Club, Torresdale Golf Club, Philadelphia Gun Club and the American Academy of Political and Social Science, and was a director of the Mutual Chemical Co. of America.

Aside from his love of sports and prominence as a clubman, Mr. Bower found time in the midst of his activities to take an active interest in the Protestant Episcopal Church at Torresdale. He was a vestryman of All Saints' Church for a number of years.

He is survived by his widow, formerly Miss Agnes Lee Fuller; two sons, George and Henry; two brothers, who are members of the Henry Bower Chemical Manufacturing Co. and a sister, Mrs. Elise E. Thayer, of Havertown.

Charles Dallett, forty-eight years old, 104 South Fargent street, died at his home Wednesday night. He had been treasurer of the W. P. Dallett Co., manufacturers of pumping machinery at 322 Sanson street, twenty-eight years. He is survived by a widow and two daughters. He was a member of the Engineers' Club.

The funeral will be held tomorrow morning.

Charles Henry Hitchcock, Honorable T. H. Nov. 7.—Charles Henry Hitchcock, geologist and former professor at Dartmouth College, is dead at the age of eighty-three.

Theodore B. Potsdammer, Theodore B. Potsdammer veteran printer and lithographer, since 1888 associated with the Ketterling Co., died on Tuesday at his home, 1921 Girard avenue. He was seventy-eight years old, and is survived by his widow, one daughter and one son.

Richard Devine, Retired Grocer, Dead Richard Devine, seventy-one years old, retired grocer, of 31 North Thirty-fourth street, died early today as a result of a heart attack. He is survived by his wife, Ellen, and five children. Mr. Devine was a member of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul.

Alleged Highwayman Held Thomas J. Pierce, thirty-seven years old, Eighth street near Washington avenue, was held in $1000 bail for court today by Magistrate Imber on a charge of attempted highway robbery. Joe Darwin, of Clearfield, Pa., testified that Pierce tried to hold him at Eighth and South streets last night.

POLITICS AND PLAY ON LAMBERTON TRIP

Sheriff-Elect and Friends to Take Week-End Jaunt in Jersey

ISSUES TO BE DISCUSSED

Sheriff-elect Lambertson and a party of political friends will leave this afternoon for a week-end vacation at Turkey Point place of Vivian Frank (Gable) on the Manassan river, in upper New Jersey.

Considerable interest attaches to the trip, as it is understood the vacation will be made the occasion for a discussion of patronage in the sheriff's office which, for the last four years, has been under the control of the Vares.

George W. Coles, treasurer of the Moore republican campaign committee, who will be included in the group at Turkey Point, admitted that politics and the future of the Republican party in this city would be discussed.

Mr. Coles said all would not be serious politics, however. He will spend much time chopping trees and has issued a challenge to the others to enter a tree-chopping contest.

In connection with the suggestion that politics would come up intimate friends of Mr. Lambertson said that the new sheriff held Mayor-elect Moore in the highest regard and that the two would cooperate in the movement for reform.

Besides those mentioned others in the party will be George D. Porter, former director of public safety; Clerk of the Court of Quarter Sessions Cunningham; Oscar Noll, Pennock leader of the Thirtieth ward, and President Judge Brown, of the Municipal Court.

William A. Keiter "Pays" Dearly for Homecoming Reception After Service Abroad

There is one returned service man in Philadelphia who doesn't think so much of the welcome given him in the "city of receptions." He is William A. Keiter, 1503 Green street, lately in the United States marine corps, a veteran of the great war.

Keiter, who was mustered out a few weeks ago, and who had not yet obtained a peace-time occupation, had $781 in his pocket on the evening of November 4. It represented a great proportion of his worldly goods, since it is well known that those who served their country so well in the Argonne did not become millionaires.

Keiter had the money at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening. At 10 o'clock he had it no longer. In the meantime he had ridden on the elevated subway from Sixtieth street to Broad street and had then walked up Broad street to Spring garden. One cigar store had been his only stop. Yet, at 10 o'clock, the $781 had vanished.

Ex-Devil Dog Keiter is today offering a reward to any one who may have found the money.

BELIEVES COWS STOLEN

Thieves Blamed for Disappearance of Two Bovines

To the list of loot obtained by thieves in this city is believed to be two live cows, property of S. Harris, Sixteenth and Tasker streets.

The animals were with a number of others belonging to Mr. Harris, in pasture at Jones' lane, on "The Neck," an inventory of the cows several days ago showed that two were missing and advertisements and police investigation have failed to reveal their whereabouts. Both are branded with the letter "H."
